4. CONDITIONS:

- A. The undersigned, desiring to publish the subject paper in the ARMMS Conference Digest, hereby grants the RF and Microwave Society (ARMMS) permission to do so. If the paper is presently copyrighted, then royalty-free permission to publish in the aforementioned digest is also granted.
- B. The undersigned also grants ARMMS royalty free permission to reproduce the paper in any future ARMMS publications, both printed and electronic. This may include placing it on the ARMMS web site.
- C. It is understood that ARMMS makes no claims towards any copyrights, proprietary rights or patent rights in connection with any material provided in this paper.
- D. If the author(s) are employed and the paper was prepared as part of the employment, the rights to the paper initially rest with the employer. In that case, the undersigned represents that he/she has the power and authority to sign this release and that the employer has consented to all of the terms and conditions of this form. Also, if the paper has been performed under a government contract and/or any author is an employee of the government, then approval for publication should be obtained from the appropriate government official, if it is required.

- E. ARMMS must of necessity assume that materials presented at its meetings or submitted for publication are properly available for general dissemination to the audiences these activities are organised to serve. It is the responsibility of the author, not ARMMS, to determine whether disclosure of this material requires the prior consent of other parties, and if so, to obtain it. Also, it is understood that responsibility for the contents of this paper rests solely with the author(s).
- F. For jointly authored papers, only one signature is required, but it is assumed all authors have been advised and have consented to the terms of this form.

5. AUTHORIZATION:

The undersigned hereby grant(s) permission to ARMMS to publish the above paper in the Conference Digest and other ARMMS publications and accepts all of the above terms and conditions.
